Addressing AI Social Risks | Workshop

May 27, 2024, 12:00-14:00
Trubowicz Building, room 307, Faculty of Law

The awardees of the joint grant program "Addressing AI social risks" by the Center for AI and Data Science (TAD) and the Shamgar Center for Digital Law will present and discuss their research.

12:00-12:20 - Gathering and Opening Remarks

12:20-12:40

Tamar Mayer (Arts), Udi Sommer (Political Sciences)
ARTificial Democracies

12:40-13:00

Gal Ostreicher-Singer (Management), Shir Etgar (Communication)
Is Chat-GPT's Financial Advice (Unintentionally) Gender Biased?

13:00-13:20

Assaf Hamdani (Law), Goren Gordon (Industrial Engineering)
Measuring & Promoting Critical Thinking Regarding Legal AI Decision Support Systems

13:20-13:40

Ran Gilad Bachrach (Bio-Medical Engineering)
Are Decision-Making "Experts" Immuned from Potential xAI Risks?

To participate please register here>